NDIS Practice Standards

The College is committed to the NDIS Practice Standards in the delivery of the RISE Program and in all its interactions with people who have a disability and their families. The following sets out our commitment.

Participant Rights

- The College will recognise, promote and fully respect participants' rights to dignity and respect, freedom of expression, self-determination, choice and control, confidentiality and privacy and ensure to the best of our ability that participants are free from discrimination, exploitation, abuse, harm, neglect and violence.
- Participants are provided with information outlining their rights and responsibilities in their Service Agreement.
- All staff employed with the RISE Program have signed a Code of Conduct & Privacy, Dignity, Confidentiality & Respect policy document.

Participation and Inclusion

- The College will focus on people with a disability being valued members of their communities and will work with them, their family and friends to foster opportunities for meaningful participation and active inclusion in the RISE Program and the wider community.
- A Policy on Community Inclusion sets out ways in which students may be able to participate in their community.

Individual Outcomes

- The College will plan, deliver and review our RISE Program service to participants based on their personal strengths and goals and will ensure that our quality standards of practice support participants to exercise choice and control over the design and delivery of their participation with us.
- Participants will have the opportunity to provide input to the activities delivered in their program via their tutors on a regular basis.

Feedback and Complaints

- The College will respect participants' rights and those of their family/carer to give feedback and make complaints if dissatisfied. Participants can expect a complaint to be dealt with in a manner that reflects their individual and cultural needs and to be guided and supported in the process of resolving dissatisfaction.
- The College has a Student Complaints Policy, which sets out how to raise a grievance or complaint. (A simple pictorial version is also available.)

Service Access

- The College will focus on the importance of providing information that is readily available, is adapted to individual needs and outlines the features and capacity of the services we provide. We will ensure that participants have access to those services in a way that is transparent, fair, equal and responsive. Information on how to access the RISE Program is provided on the College website and in College brochures and information flyers.

Service Management

- The College will ensure that participants receive quality services that are well managed and delivered by staff with the right values, attitudes, goals and experience, and quality services which are effectively and efficiently governed. We will strive to continually improve the quality of our service.
- The College adopts a non-discriminatory approach towards recruitment and employment of staff and ensures that members of staff have the requisite knowledge, skills and qualifications to carry out their duties in a way that ensures the wellbeing of participants.
- The College employs a RISE Coordinator to oversee all aspects of the delivery of RISE.
- Members of staff have the opportunity to discuss their performance and any training or development needs with the RISE Program Coordinator.

Exit Procedure:

- The College makes provision for participants to exit programs if they choose; the College's refund policy (if applicable) is applied if participants withdraw prior to the course commencement, and this is outlined in their service agreement.
- The College will provide written referrals to participants who indicate they would prefer to attend another service. Information will be provided to the participant to ensure they make an informed decision.
- The College has the right to ask a participant to leave the program if the participant does not abide by the College's code of conduct or if the participant behaves in a way that puts themselves or others at risk.
- Any participant exiting RISE will be invited to participate in an exit discussion with the RISE Coordinator.
